NO FUN MUST PASS

FOLD LINES

When Atomic Werewolf originally signed on to reissue the watershed No Fun anthology The Beatles of Surrey, the volume of potential bonus material was rather overwhelming. We originally designed a 3-CD “super deluxe” edition, but it slowly mutated into four, then five CDs. When the fever broke, it was decided that a slightly expanded (merely) deluxe 2-CD edition would roll out first and be followed by a 3-CD companion set called No Fun Must Pass.

Disc 1 could easily have been disc 3 of the super deluxe set — a mix of live and studio tracks covering well-known favorites, obscure curios, and previously unheard treasures.

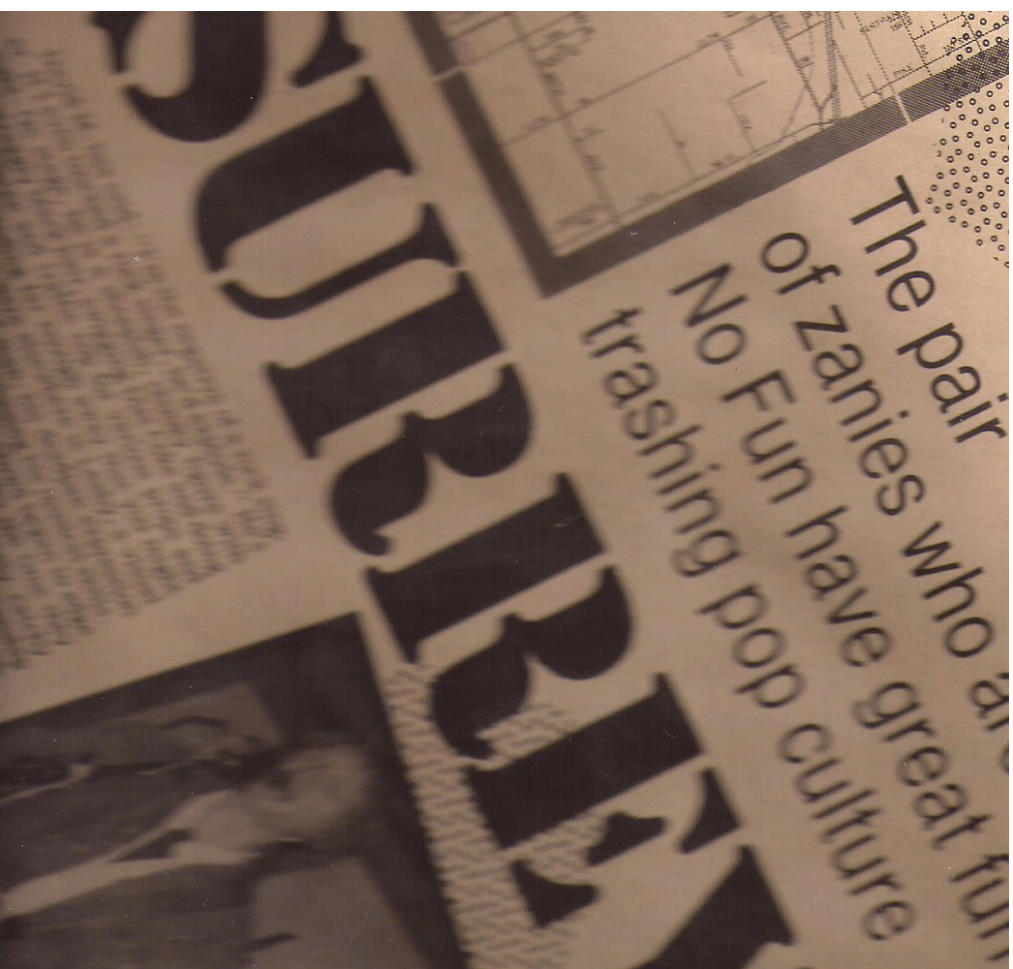

Disc 2 was bound to happen. A collection of live GORGO ads that will surely make your belly ache.

Finally, disc 3 presents a No Fun theme. Theme shows have been a popular staple of the No Fun live experience. This theme: Women In Rock.

ABOUT Atomic Werewolf: formed by two ex-Vancouverite miscreants in 2022 now operating mountain compound offices and studios (just outside of Edmonton and just outside of Denver). This volume was sequenced by Kent in the Edmontonish office and remastered at the Fractional Farthing Colorado studio.

David M.’s compositions are @Oinksdedoinksdoink Music (SOCAN). For information about the cover versions and/or the parodies, or anything else for that matter, contact the Atomic Werewolf legal department via bandcamp contact link.

Dramatis Personae: David M. (Vocals, Guitar), Paul Leahy (Guitar, Vocals), and sometimes Pico (Chanteuse).
